Call to Worship

L: Again and again we return to you, most welcoming God.

P: Again and again we seek your face, searching for that glint of grace in your eyes for that insightful word from your tongue.

L: Again and again we sit at your feet, learning to love more often, more tangibly to listen more carefully and speak more boldly.

P: Again and over again we share your table, marveling at the abundance of your life at the hope that we find when we rest in you.

ALL: Again and again we give you thanks, most wondrous God.

The VBS classes will meet following the worship service.

We are conducting a review of Ben Tapper as Faith Formation Coordinator. We want to give feedback to Ben to help in his growth and to help us understand this new position. An e-mail was sent on Friday with a link to an online survey. We have also put a paper copy in your mailbox. Please respond by June 24 and give to a member of ARC: Marcy Major, John Yoder, or Ted Danielson.

Luke 10:38-42 (NRSV)

Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me." But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her."
